APRIL 2025

It is my distinct honor to invite you to our annual Heels on the Battlefields Women's Empowerment Conference. This year's conference will be held at the Marriott Courtyard, 325 Rowan BLVD., Glassboro, NJ. Proceeds from this event will directly support our efforts to empower the next generation, specifically through scholarships for five outstanding high school graduates from Gloucester County schools.

This year, we are thrilled to collaborate with Peaceful Mind Haven to bring this impactful event to life for our community. Our 2025 theme, "Haven of Healing," beautifully reflects the connections that unite us all and the shared journey of healing from past and present challenges. The primary mission of this conference is to educate and empower individuals to drive meaningful progress in justice and equality across critical areas, including education, healthcare, economics, politics, diversity, and social initiatives. The challenges of 2025 highlights the vital importance of education of the issues in overcoming obstacles and building resilience.

The Gloucester County NAACP is unwavering in its commitment to advancing educational opportunities for our youth. The deserving recipients of this scholarship will be honored during our June 2025 Membership meeting, which will be held on Monday, June 9, 2025, at Rowan College of South Jersey Gloucester Campus, 14 Tanyard Road, Sewell, NJ 08080, at 6:00 PM.

Included in this packet is information for ticket purchases and sponsorship opportunities.

We eagerly anticipate making this year's conference and scholarship program unforgettable as we continue to foster empowerment, progress, and hope within our community.

Enclosed is additional information for ticket and ad information and sponsorship opportunities.

Thanking you in advance for joining us in this important endeavor. Together, we are making a difference!

Yours in the struggle

Loretta Winters
