HEELS ON THE BATTLEFIELDS @ EDELMAN FOSSIL PARK

Dear Friend,

It is my distinct honor to invite you to partner with us for the Heels on the Battlefields Women's Leadership Experience, hosted by the Gloucester County NAACP at the Edelman Fossil Park & Museum, 66 Million Mosasaur Way, Sewell, NJ. Proceeds will directly support scholarships for five outstanding Gloucester County high school graduates and critical programs that lift young people toward college and career success.

Why this matters now:

Across the country, the current administration's policy and budget choices have created new pressures on education funding and community supports. Local organizations must fill gaps and protect opportunity for students facing economic uncertainty. This conference is both a celebration of women's leadership and a practical response: by raising scholarship funds and strengthening community partnerships, we remove barriers and expand pathways for the next generation.

How you can make an impact:

- Become a Sponsor — Demonstrate your commitment to education and women's leadership while providing tangible support for scholarships and student services.
- Make a Contribution — Every gift funds scholarships, emergency aid, and programs that keep students on track.
- Attend the Conference — Hear the stories, connect with community leaders, and see the impact of your support firsthand.

Included with this letter is a packet with ticket, ad, and sponsorship information outlining levels, benefits, and deadlines.

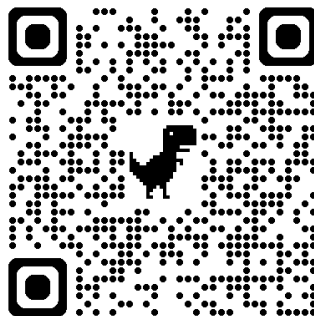

Your partnership—whether through sponsorship, a donation, or attendance—creates immediate, measurable opportunity for local students and strengthens our community's commitment to equity and education.

Thank you for considering this important investment in young people's futures. For sponsorships, ticket purchases, or questions, please contact Tiffany Walker at tbwalkerwinters@gmail.com or Loretta Winters at gnaacppresident@gmail.com or call 609-221-1307.

Yours in the struggle

Loretta Winters
